

Hans India is an English-language daily newspaper published in New Delhi, Andhra Pradesh, and Telangana. Hyderabad Media House Ltd., which owns HMTV and the newspaper, launched it on July 15, 2011. Chief editor V. Ramu Sarma.

Kapil Group's Hans India is promoted by K. Vaman Rao. Kapil Group is a business conglomerate with over 30 companies, starting with Kapil Chit Funds in 1981.

The newspaper's name, The Hans India, comes from the Hindi word "Hans," meaning swan.

"We chose the swan as the symbol for HMTV and also named our paper after this bird as it has the ability to separate milk from water," said K. Ramachandra Murthy, MD and CEO of Hyderabad Media House at the time. We separate fact from fiction and truth from untruth in the same way. "Free, Frank, and Fearless" is the paper's motto.
